commissioners, appointed by part of the city, filed a report yester-day, awarding $55,611 to the property owners for the land which it is pro-posed to condemn. To the report is appended a recommendation that the whole park scheme be abandoned.

the establishment of the park in question was authorized by a resolution passed by the Council on January 7. The proposed park site is about two blocks square in area, and is bounded on the east by Seventh Street, on the west by the alley between Fifth and Sixth Streets; on the north by Hospital Street, and on the south by Federal Street, and its extension in a straight line to Seventh Street.

"As shown by the report the awards aggregate $55,611. While we were very liberal in view of the high fee simple and annual values of property in the section in which the colored population is forced to reside, the awards do not begin to meet the demands of owners, hence it is probable that the final figures will be much higher.

"The cost of grading, filling and terracing and the annual outlay, are, of course, unknown quantities, but they will be very large. We are, therefore, forced to the conclusion, as suggested by those mostly in interest, that if these expenditures be put upon Bacon Quarter Branch and Shockee Creek, vastly more benefit will accrue to the people it is proposed to help than can

COLORED PEOPLE OPPOSE SEPARATE FARK PLAN Although appointed by the Hustings Court primarily to establish the value of the property it was proposed to condemn under the Council resolution, the plain-spoken opinion of the commissioners as to the advisability of founding a park in the Smith's Hill locality, will have an important bearing upon the fate of the project. Under the terms of the resolution the price at which the property is to be acquired must be approved by the Finance Committee and the Council. The commission, which filed yesterday's report, is composed of E. A. Catlin, B. C. Lewis, James R. Sheppard and W. H. Zimmermann.

colored citizens, who, when the matter was being investigated by Council committees, registered their unqualified protest against the founding of a park on the site proposed. The objections raised followed closely those outlined in the commission's report. The fear was expressed by a large number of influential colored men that the park would become the resort of the victous and criminal elements, and would be shunned by the hetter classes.

For the establishment of the park it was urged that Jackson Ward, the most densely populated portion of the city, is at present without an open-air breathing space to which the workers may retire for rest and a breath of air after their day's labor. A park in the colored residence section, it was hoped, moreover, would draw away from the parks in the white neighborhoods the colored people who under present conditions are compelled to resort there.

DO NOT WANT SEGREGATION

PRINCIPLE EXTENDED TO PARKS
A considerable contingent of the more progressive elements of the colored population opposed the establishment of a park designed particularly for the use of negroes on the ground that it involved a distasteful application of the so-called "Jim Crow" principle. The matter was for many weeks the subject of much discussion, and was settled finally by the adoption of a resolution authorizing the condemnation of property for a park in the Smith's Hill section.

The commission made the following awards to property—Dr. James Blair, $13,559; W. G. Mahone, $2,599; August Simonpietri, $4,400; D. B. Wallerstein, $1,475; H. C. Redd, $1,400; Lucy Winston, $1,500; A. C. Carneal, $1,100; Powhatan Baker, $1,000; Charles H. Tompkins, $1,000; P. S. Burford, $1,000; W. H. Watson, $1,100; Addie E. V. Latham, $1,000; M. P. Williams, $$50; Hannah Burton, $1,400; Callie H. Brauer, $2,200; S. T. Adair, $3,200; R. Hones, $1,150; Mary A. Robertson, $1,500; Kate S. Lowry, $800; W. T. Lowry, $800; W. T. Lowry, $800; W. T. Lowry, $800; Mary J. Jenkins, $1,200; John O. Lewis, $1,400.

Unimproved property—Walter S. Jackson, $330; Daniel Bazley, $490; Mary C. West, $3,680; Mamie R. Cowardin, $276; H. S. Wallerstein, $720; Virginia Fire and Marine Insurance Company, $5,150; F. L. Chambers, $200; Franklin Stearns, Jr., $100, and Dupont Powder Company, $100. Total, $56,611.

Why "Randolph"?

RANDOLPH takes the place of MONROE June 15 as a central office name. Madison remains unchanged.

Madison and Monroe, as used side by side in the past, have given rise to a great deal of confusion. Recent tests show that calls have been made for one when the other was intended as often as several hundred times a day, with consequent annoyance to our subscribers. Most of these cases seem to have been due to similarity in the appearance of the names in the telephone directory.

With Randolph and Madison for the two central office names in Richmond, we believe this confusion will disappear.

The name of Randolph was chosen after careful consideration of a number of possible names, and we trust will meet with the approval of the Richmond public.

The new telephone directory containing the necessary changes will be distributed about June 15. Please consult this directory when making calls, and in all instances give the central office designation Randolph for all numbers formerly designated as Monroe.
